That's okay Steve,

I have already rescheduled my appointments, booked a room in Silverton, made the necessary arrangements to get there. Unless there is no need for a START on site I will be there midday Sunday to relieve Jan for the next week. The question I have will be do we need two people on site next week?

Thanks,
Elliott

Elliott, if Jan concludes by Friday that you do not need to be here, then you may get a pass.

Hi Steve,

I got your request for me to return to the site. I have begun rescheduling my personal appointments (baby classes and appointment) and certification classes scheduled for next week. With this in mind what date are you anticipating the site will be closed out for the year/ can I demobilize? We are working on a second person to accompany me as well. Is there anything/any personnel you would like in addition to me and the second person?
